

TAE - I

Name: Shivam - Tauri

Roll no: A-58

Subject: UHV

Q. 5 key points that struck you.

→ ① Spending time with family is very precious.

② Stopped arguing with people who don't understand.

③ Stopped wasting time on people trying to stop them from going in the wrong path.

④ Stopped reacting on incidents which happen on everyday basis. Cause its useless.

⑤ No matter what, in the end everything will be okay. Everyone ~~reach~~ reaches their destiny / fate.

Q. 5 key problems that you are able to notice.

→ ① Workload and peer pressure has too much stress on the younger generation.

② Materialistic life is given more preference which I feel is very wrong.

③ Getting jealous over people who show off everything on social media and in reality have a very dull life which instead causes increasing anxiety among young generation.

④ ~~as~~ I feel social media is no more about social life but instead spreading toxicness in the world.

⑤ Our young generation lacks the patience to sit in everything.

Q. Mention any five things that give you happiness in continuity.

→ ① Spending time with parents give me happiness.

② The fact that people are happy due to me, also gives me happiness.

③ The power to avoid unnecessary conversations.

④ Happy to see myself on the path of self awareness and peace.

⑤ Ready to help selflessly for my friends.

Q. Mention any five things that make you feel unhappy.

-
- ① Losing my temper on some topics / people.
 - ② People making unnecessary comparisons.
 - ③ Blaming others for our mistake.
 - ④ Not able to maintain a good morning schedule.
 - ⑤ People forgetting about their physical fitness in the race of peer pressure.

Q. What role do you see yourself in the education system?

-
- Honestly speaking I don't see my role in the education system as I am more interested towards the corporate sector.